

The Cape Elizabeth Arts Commission (CEAC)

We are Volunteer Citizens Serving our Community

The mission of the Cape Elizabeth Arts Commission is to enhance and enliven the community by promoting awareness, involvement, understanding and access to the arts including; visual arts, music, dance, photography, writing, theater, film and video.

Public Exhibitions in the Thomas Memorial Library Gallery

The CEAC Volunteers Manage, Maintain, Attend and Chaperone 12 - Month - Long

*Thomas Memorial Library Gallery Art Exhibits each year
The Sales from these Exhibits Generate Income to the Town of Cape Elizabeth*

Community Art Programs

*The Commission Funded the Purchase of Four (4) Artist Designed and Constructed New Easels For the Cape Elizabeth Community Center
ARTS STUDIO*

Thomas Memorial Library Membership Includes Family Museum Passes

The Commission Funds Annual - Family Museum Passes To

The Portland Museum of Art

Children's Museum of Maine

*Farnsworth Museum Rockland Campus Locations include
The Wyeth Center, Homestead House, Library
And the Olsen House in Cushing, Maine*

Art Grants Program

*The Commission Funds
Arts Awards to Local Cape Elizabeth Artists Resulting in Gallery Exhibits
Seniors in Cape Elizabeth – A Photographic and Written Documentary
Shady Hill Horse Farm – A Four Season Photographic Documentary
. . . Gallery Exhibit Opening in December*

Historic Conservation and Cultural Preservation

The Volunteer Commission Maintains and Records the Town's Art Collection

Public Education

The Volunteer Commission Serves as a Clearing House for Local Art Activities by Creating Programs that Bring a Vibrancy and Energy to Our Local Community and Culture through the Arts